

TO THE PUBLIC:

I had hoped to be able to personally see all the voters in the city of Chattanooga, but the time is so short I will be unable to accomplish that. I am a candidate to succeed myself as a justice of the peace from the city of Chattanooga. I am now serving out an unexpired term and have been a member of the county court four years. I refer the voters to anyone connected with the county government and those familiar with county court matters as to my record. I am seeking an endorsement of that record. I have at all times had the interest of the public in mind, and that has guided my course of action in the court. If re-elected to this very important office I promise a continuance of that interest. I am very much interested in the matter of flood prevention for the city, and will use my best efforts to that end if the opportunity arises in the county court. I favor a liberal appropriation of the county's funds for that purpose.

—how Mrs. Knox has made left-overs that used to be thrown away, into delicious dishes

SHE has spent much time gathering material from dozens of different women who have devoted their lives to teaching the best and most economical ways of buying and preparing food, as well as from her own wide experience as a housekeeper and home maker.

"My idea," she says, "was to find truly attractive ways in which to utilize left-overs, and thereby help our Government in its food conservation plans."

Mrs. Knox has found inviting uses for left-overs—she has devised numerous recipes, most of them based upon using the very things you generally throw away. And she has put them into a book of her own—"Food Economy"—that shows you how to practice real war-time economy in your kitchen.

You should have a copy. A post card request will bring it to you free if you mention your dealer's name and address.

"DOPPY" LEAVES JAIL FOR NEW POSITION

Unfortunate Boy Won Friends by His Kind and Courteous Attention to Other Prisoners.

Alfred Reedy, better known as "Doppy," will leave the Hamilton county jail Wednesday, he having resigned his position there to accept an out-of-town job.

"Doppy" has been at the county jail for a long number of months, most of which have been spent there by him voluntarily and the rest by order of the court. When "Doppy" was first picked up and taken to jail he was a user of dope in large quantities, but since his stay at the jail, and despite the fact that he has been outside many times and could have gotten to the drug, he has moderated in his habit until now he takes it in small quantities and has almost cured himself of the habit.

The unfortunate habit was responsible for "Doppy" being an inmate of the jail, it having caused him to pick up with a bad crowd and through their influence he landed in jail.

A News reporter was responsible for "Doppy" release the first time, he having become interested in the unfortunate boy and gained Judge McReynolds' consent to have him released. However, "Doppy" liked the way he was treated at the jail and the kindness shown him there, which was probably the first he had received in years and he came back and asked to be allowed to remain. Then the baroness Lou W. Zoller became a prisoner at the jail, and on account of the kind way that "Doppy" treated her, she became very much attached to him. It was "Doppy" who, during the long nights of the famous prisoner's confinement, slept just outside her cell and the baroness often said "just the fact that I knew there was a human near was in itself wonderfully comforting."

When the famous prisoner was sent to New York she asked that one of "Doppy's" pictures be sent her and this was done.

Julius Aaron Ballew said Wednesday night that the jail officials would miss "Doppy," but he did not believe the boy would remain away long as it looked as if he had become a part of the institution. The prisoners at the jail, to whom "Doppy" was always kind and on whom he always waited without a complaint, will miss him.

HOTEL MEN PERFECT STATE ORGANIZATION

Wheatless, Meatless, Sugarless, Butterless and Creamless Dinner Served.

At the meeting of the Tennessee hotel men Tuesday afternoon at the Read House J. Bayless Rector, of Chattanooga, was elected president and treasurer. Other officers elected were W. G. Slagle, of Memphis, first vice-president; R. R. Ramsay, Knoxville, second vice-president, and Frank Carden, of this city, was selected as the attorney for the association.

The organization formed will be known as the Tennessee Hotel association. Another meeting of the association will be held in Nashville on the second Tuesday in July.

Members of the association who attended the meeting were taken for an automobile ride Tuesday afternoon, after which they returned to the Hotel Patten, where they were entertained at a dinner by Houston R. Harper and John Lovell.

A feature of the dinner Tuesday evening was the menu, which was a wheatless, meatless, sugarless, butterless and creamless dinner. Forty or fifty years ago housekeepers would have thought such a thing as this impossible and would have said "it couldn't be done." The menu was as follows:

Celery Radishes Olives
Essence of Celery
Corn Sticks
Grilled Pompano

CHILD GETS SICK, CROSS, FEVERISH IF CONSTIPATED

Look at tongue! Then give fruit laxative for stomach, liver, bowels.

"California Syrup of Figs" can't harm children and they love it.

Mother! Your child isn't naturally cross and peevish. See if the tongue is coated; this is a sure sign the little stomach, liver and bowels need a cleansing at once.

When listless, pale, feverish, full of cold, breath bad, throat sore, doesn't eat, sleep or act naturally, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, remember, gentle liver and bowel cleansing should always be the first treatment given.

Nothing equals "California Syrup of Figs" for children's ills; give a teaspoonful, and in a few hours all the foul waste, sour bile and fermenting food which is clogged in the bowels passes out of the system, and you have a well and playful child again. All children love this harmless, delicious "fruit laxative," and it never fails to effect a good "inside" cleansing. Directions for babies, children of all ages, and grown-ups are plainly on the bottle.

Keep it handy in your home. A little given today saves a sick child tomorrow, but get the genuine. Ask your druggist for a bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," then see that it is made by the California Fig Syrup Company. (Adv.)

Another Unsolved Mystery of the Sea

THE U. S. S. CYCLOPS.

Where are they? What happened? Many a ship has sunk or burned at sea, but only a few were swept from the waters by a fate unguessed—by a power unknown. They are forever "missing."

Nine other ships besides the Cyclops, American colliers, just reported missing with 223 men, have been lost at sea "without a trace" in recent years.

In 1841, the President, an American ship sailing from New York to Liverpool, joined the missing with a crew of 136.

In 1854 the City of Glasgow, British ship, Liverpool to Philadelphia, disappeared with loss of 480.

In 1856, the Pacific, American ship, Liverpool to New York, missing with crew of 186.

In 1857, the Tempest (nationality not given) lost with crew of 150.

In 1870 an American ship, the Inman Line's City of Boston, sailed from New York with a passenger list of 117—and was never heard from.

A. W. Chambliss made the principal address at the dinner, devoting his talk to what the hotel men can do to help win the war. Mr. Chambliss told of how some were always complaining, it didn't make any difference what was set before them to eat. He gave as an illustration an incident which occurred in a hotel where he dined recently. First, he said, women are like angels—they are always up in the air and they never have an earthly thing to wear, and they are always harping about something. This one that he gave as an illustration was a table near him at the hotel was harping about a "Hoover dish," and said she didn't like it. He said here, "Is it possible that men and women in America would eat all the wheat bread and not be willing to give the boys who are fighting at the front for them, bread?" Mr. Chambliss declared the man who saves a lump of sugar or a pound of flour helps save this world from disaster.

After Mr. Chambliss had made his talk a number of the out-of-town visitors were called upon to talk. Some of those who made brief addresses were: H. N. Brown, of Cleveland; David Trotter, of Knoxville; Joseph Iselle, of Memphis; W. H. Austin, H. F. Van Dusen, Mrs. Ida Tachopik, F. A. Carson and J. B. Rector, of Chattanooga, made short talks.

ALL BUT ELEVEN MUTINEERS CAPTURED

Houston, Tex., April 17.—All but 11 of the 100 men involved in the first mutinous outbreak at Camp Logan have been captured and returned to the camp, where they have been assigned to the new organizations to which they were ordered transferred at the time of the outbreak.

The transfer of 162 men from the military police and ammunition trains to various units in the division caused the outbreak. The men objected to being widely scattered throughout the camp. Of the 162 ordered transferred 100 left the camp late Monday night, and after an all-night search, 89 of the missing men were again in custody. Search is still being continued for the absent ones.

SKIN ABLAZE WITH ECZEMA

CONSTANT ITCHING ALMOST UNBEARABLE.

Only those afflicted with Eczema, with its terrifying irritation and ceaseless itching know what constant torture this disease can cause. The disease appears in different ways, sometimes with a reddening and irritation of the skin, sometimes in the form of blisters. Other cases of Eczema take the form of a dry, scaly condition of the skin that cracks and peels. But no matter in what form the disease appears, it is a source of constant fiery irritation that is well-nigh unbearable.

Eczema is very often considered a skin disease. This is a natural mistake, as it attacks the skin and it is through the skin that it causes so much discomfort and suffering. But the real seat of the disease is the blood. The germs of Eczema are in the blood, and the irritated and diseased condition of the skin is the result of the germs trying to break out of the system. Beyond the use of antiseptics to promote cleanliness, there is no local treatment that will accomplish a permanent cure of this disease. And those who have been relying altogether upon salves, soaps, ointments and other local applications to the skin will find that no permanent good will come from such treatment by itself.

Read how Basil M. Lanneau, who resides on Confederate avenue, in Atlanta, Ga., found relief from this terrifying disease, after all local treatment had failed. He writes:

"I suffered with a most aggravated case of Eczema, the itching being so severe that I could not sleep. I used thirteen pounds of ointment, tried nearly every skin remedy, besides being treated by two skin specialists. I am now convinced that Eczema is nothing but a blood trouble, for after taking several bottles of S. S. S., I am entirely cured."

Years of untold suffering can be avoided if the real cause of a disease can be definitely determined, and the proper method of treatment employed. Hence those afflicted with Eczema will continue to suffer as long as they consider the disease a condition of the skin, and rely solely upon local applications of salves, ointments and similar remedies. If you really want to be cured you must realize that the disease is in the blood, and you can expect relief only from treatment that is directed toward cleansing the blood of the disease germs. This is why S. S. S. is so successful in the treatment of Eczema and all other diseases of the blood; because it acts as an antidote to any impurity that finds lodgment in the blood. Being purely vegetable and guaranteed not to contain a particle of mineral substance, it is an exceptionally fine tonic, and besides eliminating from the blood all traces of impurity, it builds up and strengthens the entire system at the same time.

We invite everyone afflicted with Eczema, or other blood or skin disease, to write our medical department for advice, which is gladly given without charge. Full instructions as to how to treat your own individual case will be gladly furnished by our chief medical adviser, who is an expert on these diseases. American Farmer Boys Are Falling on the Battlefields of France

Yours May be Next!

Every time American troops suffer casualties in "No Man's Land" you'll find "R. F. D." after the name of some of the dead, wounded or "missing." These letters stamp that boy as the son of a farmer.

The longer this war is prolonged the more blood of these plow boys will be spilled—the more often you'll see "R. F. D." emergency addresses. Your boy may be there—a brave volunteer. Soon you may find his name on the casualty list. Save your boy! Save your neighbor's boy!

It can be done only by bringing this war to a speedy close. The war will never end until America and her Allies have been victorious; until the military nobility—those who caused it—is subdued.
